Kreative Call, a champion of inclusive art, is proud to present “Flowing Impressions” : A Collaborative Art Exhibition bridging two distinct worlds. This groundbreaking showcase unites the talent of renowned international visual artist Magali Katra with a gifted community of artists with autism, resulting in a collection that is both visually striking and deeply evocative.

This exhibition is more than an artistic display—it is a celebration of collaboration, creativity, and the limitless ways in which art can challenge perceptions. Through vibrant paintings, these artists have woven a shared visual language that transcends boundaries, offering new perspectives on artistic expression.

Magali Katra, known for her dynamic and expressive style, has partnered with these talented artists to merge different techniques, visions, and emotions into a cohesive yet diverse body of work. Each brushstroke carries meaning, each composition tells a story, and together, they create a powerful narrative of connection, imagination, and artistic freedom.

“Flowing Impressions” is a testament to the transformative power of art and its ability to dissolve barriers. Magali Katra’s guidance, passion, and artistic mastery have played a crucial role in shaping this collaboration, inspiring the participating artists to explore new creative horizons. By bringing together established excellence and fresh, unfiltered perspectives, this exhibition invites viewers to embrace the beauty of diversity and reconsider traditional notions of creativity.

We warmly invite you to experience this extraordinary collaboration—one that is not only visually captivating but also profoundly moving. Join us in celebrating the remarkable achievements of these talented artists and the invaluable contribution of Magali Katra, whose vision and artistry have brought this unique collection to life.
